Delia Camacho has attended the last five Democratic National Conventions and, since 1995, she has served as a Contributing Member of the Democratic National Committee. She proudly cast her vote in the 1996 meeting of the Electoral College for William Jefferson Clinton. She has been a part of the Tejano Democrats, Mexican-American Democrats and the Women's Political Caucus. She was the founder of El Paso Westside Democrat Club, where she served as the president from 1983 – 1986. Delia received the "Chairman's Unity Award" from the El Paso County Democratic Party in 1984. In addition to being a Convention Delegate to the El Paso County Democratic Party Conventions since 1982, she serves as the Chair of Precinct 18. In addition to all of these activities, somehow Delia has found time to be involved in the lives of her students and to participate in the Texas State Teachers Association. Delia's middle name must be "Busy".
