

Lottie Cody

Lottie is a proud daughter of two very Yellow Dog Democrats, Weadom and Pearlie Wright. Since her first vote at age 18, she has always been a Democrat.

In addition to being a long time member of the County Democratic Party, Lottie was also a charter member of the Black El Paso Democrats. She has been very active in voter registration drives, election campaigns, and was a precinct chair for over 17 years. Currently, Lottie offers her talents to God in the Shiloh Baptist Church where she ministers, plays the piano, and sings in the choir. Her great melodic voice allowed her to sing the National Anthem for two Texas Governors and also for numerous party functions.

Much of her time has been spent providing valuable volunteer time to such organizations as YWCA and United Way, for which she received a Gold Certificate Award.
