

Ramy Martinez is a busy man. From gathering up food for the homeless during Thanksgiving and Christmas drives to working for Democratic candidates, he has devoted significant time, energy and resources toward making El Paso a better place to live. Currently serving as the Chair of Precinct #43, he has served as co-chair for Community Outreach, facilitator for Democratic grassroots leadership workshop, and was the vice president of the Tejano Democrats for four years. In addition to these important jobs, Ramy has found time to be a vital force in his community. Ramy participated in Keep El Paso Beautiful, El Paso Pride Day, El Paso Leadership Alumni Association. He is currently on the Board of Directors for the UTEP Alumni Association and volunteers for the Special Olympics.
